AWARDS CEREMONY:
AUGUST 25 • 4:00 PM
at The Playhouse at Kalamazoo College

Who will we celebrate in 2019?

PRESENTED BY ARTS COUNCIL OF GREATER KALAMAZOO
359 south kalamazoo mall
suite 203
kalamazoo, mi  49007
269.342.5059
www.kalamazooarts.org

NON-PROFIT U.S. POSTAGE PAID
Kalamazoo, MI
Permit No. 313

ART HOP is a program of the Arts Council of Greater Kalamazoo and is presented with help from these generous sponsors.

D. L. Gallivan Office Solutions
DOROTHY U DALTON FOUNDATION
THE MARVIN AND ROSALIE OKUN FOUNDATION

Discover KALAMAZOO.COM
Welcome to Richland!

A BIG ART HOP

First Presbyterian Church of Richland
8047 Church Street
5:00 – 8:00 pm
Local Area Multimedia Group Show curated by ceramicist Michael Kifer, featuring paintings, prints, ceramics, glass, clothing, literature and live music.

Living Hope Community Church
9292 East CD Avenue
5:00 – 8:00 pm
The artwork of Carole Paris is exclusively digital images that she prints using Cyanotype and Photogravure. She loves how the image texture changes by using these print processes.

Little Yellow Frame Shop and Gallery
8174 N. 32nd Street
5:00 – 8:00 pm
Leon Kriesten is a self-taught artist who works in oils, watercolor, pastel and pencil. His style ranges from spontaneous florals to realistic portraits.

Great Grounds Coffee Cafe
9010 East D Avenue
5:00 – 8:00 pm
Work from Erica Bradshaw, author and illustrator of "Their Home, Our Landfill" will be on display. Other artists' work will be up as well.

Richland Area Community Center
9400 East CD Avenue
5:00 – 8:00 pm
Jerry Fry uses a gestural approach, bold color, and descriptive lines to create a contemporary narrative. Michael Kifer and other artists will be displaying their work as well.

Urban Nest
9073 East M-89
5:00 – 8:00 pm
Joan George is a self-taught artist with a love of glass. She has been doing stained glass for 20 years and fused glass for 6 years.

Zion Lion is jammin'! Join us for a free Summertime Live concert on the lawn at Richland Area Community Center. Free ice cream sundaes, yum!
Inspired by a recent visit to Nice, in the south of France, Linda Manguiat-Herzog’s four-panel “Cerulean Blue” is immersed in the colors of sea and skies.

A working studio and gallery for adults living with disabilities. The July window theme continues with “Celebrate Art,” including patriotic paintings and firework-themed art.

Mike Ortega’s work is an exploration of abstraction styles and colors in acrylics on canvas.

New works by Ellen Nelson that portray the magical realism and whimsy of being in the moment, in acrylics on canvas.

The thing that gives her great joy is bringing joy to her community through art all of her life. The thing that was most important to her was being a part of her community and making a difference.

Firing techniques.

From Renaissance to Ragtime, RVC has been making recorder music for over 10 years. Playing everything from 16th century madrigals to contemporary jazz, RVC will perform a wide variety of music.

Studying the magical realism of the everyday world, artist Faye and visual artist Emily Olivares.

Mark Meninga exhibits his latest works in a variety of media exploring the everyday world.

One of the largest art communities in the Midwest, Park Trades Center brings together 96 studios and over 100 artists, artisans, and small businesses. Works in glass, paint, wood, pottery, metal-smithing and much more.

Jackson Hole Textile Guild of Western Michigan University student members of the Ceramics Guild have been instrumental in developing innovative and exciting new firing techniques.